Augustana defeats strong northerners

Program of Events

8:00 p.m.—Service in college gymnasium.
9:30 p.m.—Ball, in the men's gymnasium. Program to include reading of honor roll, choice of honors of the year, a feature of the program, and final address by President Steenerson.
10:00 p.m.—program in the Student Union Building.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Saturday, Oct. 18
Homecoming Day
1:30 p.m.—Meting of Augustana Association, Science Lecture room.
3:00 p.m.—Foot Ball Game, East Side, East Side Ball Park.
8:00 p.m.—Alumni reception and banquet, administration building.

The School We Love

All

Augustana artists appear in recital

Missionary House on Foulsham Place on Mission Schools,-release most interesting experiences. Large field of opportunities.

Vikings Win Two Big Conference Tilts

As the day draws near "Homecoming Day of October 18" is becoming more and more a reality, as the students are making preparations to make their college's day one of triumph. As more and more students are showing to participate and also create a record of harmony and friendship, the day will be one of victory, as there is no reason to doubt that the event will be a great success.

The officers of both organizations have been active in the A Capella Choir. The following will serve:

President, Leonard Dorr, Sec., Mrs. Hellestad speaks on China missions

Mrs. Hellestad, teacher and missionary for fourteen years in China, will address the faculty and students of the college on October eight.

LOUISE SOELBERG ELECTED QUEEN FOR HOMECOMING

Louis Solberg, popular member of the senior class, will head the parade of the time-honored Augustana College and Normal School, as "The Augustana." Candidates nominated for the position were Miss Solberg, Early Anderson, Ava Gustav, Irene Bowers, Gladys Grimes, May Allens, Mary Allens, and Bertha Haufler.

Miss Hellestad's speech on China missions

Miss Hellestad, teacher and missionary for fourteen years in China, discussing interesting experiences. Large field of opportunities.

LOUISE SOELBERG ELECTED QUEEN FOR HOMECOMING

Lousie Solberg, popular member of the senior class, will head the parade of the time-honored Augustana College and Normal School, as "The Augustana." Candidates nominated for the position were Miss Solberg, Early Anderson, Ava Gustav, Irene Bowers, Gladys Grimes, May Allens, Mary Allens, and Bertha Haufler.

The School We Love

All

Augustana artists appear in recital

Berg, Tesch, Moore, and Jaehne in Joint Recital—please large audience.

Traffic afloat during the week

On the evening of October 14, Mrs. Haufler, popular speaker, and Miss Theodore, will address the students of the college on the topic "The Augustana," and the following day will be spent in discussing the topic presentation the meeting. The meeting will be held in the field house of the college.

As a special inducement for students to attend, a special program has been arranged, including a concert of songs for the freshman teams, a dance, and a program of games.

Prospects in extemporary speaking are not promising, although Augustana will eventually have an entry.

REligious activities have prominent place

Dear Church people—Reorganized. Topics and Leaders Selected. Students Encouraged to Take Part.

Religious activities at Augustana College are among the foremost in the state in the student body. At an assembly held recently in Sioux Falls, the Student Assembly planned the program for the coming semester, and the following is a list of the topics and leaders planned for the new semester.

(Continued on page 4)